A Good Thing.

There has been on foot for the past two weeks a move to organize a Literary Society in this city, in which the young men can improve their intellectual powers. The first open step in that direction was made last Wednesday night, by Mr. Jesse Phillips, at Masonic Hall, where he addressed a large number of young men, pointing out to them the advantages of such an organization. His remarks were well received, and by the close attention shown him, such a society will be welcomed by all the better class of young men who wish to grasp every opportunity by which they will be benefited mentally and morally. None are debarred, but all are welcome. This is a good move in the right direction, and has the hearty endorsement of our leading citizens. It costs you nothing to become a member. Your energy and efforts are all that are asked. Be sure and come. You will be welcome.

Miss Zedie Howard entertained the Bachelor Maids Saturday afternoon at her country home near Madisonville. Those who were fortunate enough to be present pronounced it one of the most enjoyable afternoons ever spent.
The meeting was called to order by the V. President; and the Secretary's minutes were followed by the reading of the Chat. After the usual programme was finished, the Maids listened to some vocal selections rendered by Misses Prewitt and Howard, and to some instrumental solos by Misses Evans and Umstead. Delightful refreshments were served, and the Maids adjourned to meet with the President, Miss Foard, next Saturday.

Our base ball enthusiasts were quite regular in their attendance upon the opening games at Madisonville, between Madisonville and Nashville teams. Nashville did not put up good enough ball to be interesting, but a better article is anticipated in the coming games on Friday and Saturday when Hopkinsville will play Madisonville at the new park in the latter city.

A Living Skeleton.
Mr. James Bennett, of Island, Ky., says:

in by the majority of those present.
The meeting was led by Mr. W. F.

There has been considerable interest manifested in the coming annual State Convention at Paducah, May 29, 30 and 31, and the subject has constantly been kept before the minds of the people by THE BEE and Endeavor workers.
The prospect is that a large delegation will go from this place.

The Excursion Committee,

31. Tickets will be sold May 28th,

May Day Celebrated.
The young ladies of Earlington, specifically, the Bachelor Maids, celebrated May day the other evening in a beautiful manner, continuing a custom that was started a number of years ago in this little city by a couple of spirited school mams, which custom has been observed almost every year since.

The Maids gathered together themselves and a large quantity of other blossoms and young buds, and, after manufacturing sundry neat little baskets, filling them with flowers and attaching a card on which was inscribed some fitting sentiment and the name of the person favored, they visited in a body the domicils of many friends and, quietly hanging the basket on the door knob, rang the bell and escaped before the call could be answered. The young editor received one of these sweet favors bearing the inscription, "loving greetings we enclose in the petals of a rose," and the next morning—after he awoke—he smelled the whole thing to pieces in his fondness.

The custom is a beautiful one, celebrated as it is, in such modest, maidenly manner, and should be perpetuated. Such things add sunshine and happiness to our lives.

Who is a Better Judge?
W. N. Brandon, of Cadiz, Ky., druggist, says I sell more Dr. Carlstedt's German Liver Powder than all medicines combined for liver trouble. It's really good for all diseases the human system is heir to, as it gets the stomach and bowels in order and starts the human machinery off as if all were freshly oiled. It is simply wonderful what this medicine does for suffering humanity. For sale by St. Bernard Drug

MADISONVILLE.

Mrs. O. W. Waddill is home from Hopkinsville.

Mrs. W. P. Ross has returned from Lexington.

Mrs. English has gone to Birmingham, Ala.

Mrs. John Whittinghill and Miss Lindsay have returned from Cadiz.

Misses Eugenia Johnston and Lella Dade of Henderson, are guests of Mrs. W. C.
Morton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Thompson (nee Brooks) have returned from their bridal tour.

Mrs. Lewis, of Jackson, Miss., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Ross, Jr.

Mrs. Luther Hicks, of Henderson, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. P. B. Ross.

Mrs. H. H. Holeman holds a reception this afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Neville Holeman, of Dawson.

The "rooters" will turn up from all sides Friday and Saturday, and pull as hard as they can for the Madisonvilles.

"Jack" Pratt, as an umpire, is a great success. He is fair and impartial, and will give the visiting club just as fair decisions as he will the "home boys." In fact he can give an exhibition of umpiring as seen only next to the National League.

Captain Barnes, on first base, can put up a splendid exhibition of the National game, and shows how the initial bag should be covered. He is as good as can be found in most of the minor leagues.

The younger society girls gave a Leap Year Party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ed McLeod, Tuesday evening. The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. W. C.
Morton and Mr. and Mrs. James France-way.

Miss Birdie Jernigan and Mr. Charles Hopkins, a commercial man, eloped from this place on last Friday, and were married at Springfield, Tenn. After spending a few days in this city, they left for Nashville, Tenn., where they will reside.

Madisonville presented a rather lively appearance on the streets last Saturday night. It, indeed, looked very much like a city. All the citizens of the town seemed to have turned out, and the majority of them were talking very much base ball.

Marshal Craig and Policemen Bradley and Tanner had their hands full Saturday afternoon and evening, taking care of the evil-doers, the majority of whom had "lashed up most too heavily."

Our base ball club crossed bats with the Hopkinsville yesterday and will play them again today at Hopkinsville. The report of the game did not arrive in time for publication, but the "fans" all say that "our nine" is bound to win. The Hopkinsvilles play here Friday and Saturday, and two hotly contested games are looked for.

Ernest Clayton, our local favorite, he of the sweet tenor voice, put up some glitter ball playing in the two games he participated in last week. He not only pulled down some long flies in center field, but did some timely batting as well, and received great applause from all spectators—from the "rooters" on the bleachers and also the grandstand fair enthusiasts, who clapped their small white hands in great glee.

It is announced that Miss Emma Prewitt, one of Madisonville's fairest and most accomplished daughters, will soon be united in marriage to Dr. — Lackey, of Sweet Springs, Mo. There is no young lady in the State of Kentucky who has more friends than Miss Prewitt, and who possesses all the rare accomplishments, indeed, that Kentucky women are noted for. What Kentucky loves Missouri gains thereby, and she should congratulate herself that one of her gifted sons will lead to the altar one of the fairest of Kentucky flowers that ever bloomed into womanhood.

Thursday, April 30th, 1896.
The Madisonville Base Ball Club opened the season at home with the N. A.
C. Club of Nashville. Quite a good crowd was in attendance to cheer our boys on to victory. At the close of the game there was not any one disappointed in the results, as Madisonville won in a walk.
Nashville put a very rank felling game, which accounts for the many scores made off of them. In the first inning they both drew blanks, the second brought the first score for Madisonville and a loud applause from the spectators, the third-inning gave Madisonville three scores more, and Nashville made five. In the fourth both sides got one each, then came the fifth. Madisonville tallied one, and the score was a tie 6 to 6. Madisonville in the sixth got 4 runs and won the game here. Nashville was unable to score in the last five innings. Madisonville made 5 runs in the ninth, the score was 13 to 6. Score by Friday May 1st, 1896.

The second game of the series with the N. A. C. Club of Nashville was played today. A heavy rain had fallen this morning and the prospects for the game were not very good. In the afternoon when the clouds had gotten ready clouds were hovering over the park, and it looked very gloomy for a game, and also for the club.
The Nashville's put up a good holding today, but could not hit Pitcher Smith's corner. The game started off by each side scoring one in the first inning. Madisonville scored 4 in the second and won the game. In the third Madisonville got 2 more runs, and Nashville its second and last score of the game. Madisonville got her other runs in the following innings, 5 in the fourth 3 in the 5th, 1 in the eighth. The score was 16 to 2.

Saturday, May 2nd, 1896.
The series of three games with the N.
A. C. Club of Nashville was concluded this afternoon by the best game that was ever played in this city. It was a pretty day, and a large crowd attended the game. The Nashville's took their two defeats very hard, and went in today for blood and victory. The Madisonvilles were also feeling like two-year-olds, and were full of ginger; they declared that they would win the game at all hazards, taking the entire or make a strong fight for it. The battle was waged for twelve innings at the end of which victory crowned with fadeless laurels the brows of the nine men in gray uniforms, who fought for Madisonville. There were a great many pretty features in today's game. The game opened without a score for the first three innings, the fourth brought Nashville 3, and they also scored 3 more in the sixth. Madisonville was unable to score all of this time. The spectators were as still as a graveyard. The echo could be heard as it came back from the fence in the field, telling in a woful way of two and three—base hits—which was the want of the Madisonvilles. It looked like Madisonville would be shot out as two-thirds of the game was over.

The seventh inning came and Madisonville, with 3 hits, one three banger 3 bases on balls and as many stolen bases netted four runs, and for once the spectator breathed a sigh of relief. Neither side scored in the eighth. Then came the last inning (ninth), with Nashville 2 scores in the lead. Madisonville were the first up to bat, the first man struck out and a horrible groan went up from the spectators; then came a base on balls a safe single and a hit for two bases brought in a run. The crowd went wild with enthusiasm, every body was on their feet, hollering like maniacs. Both sides failed to score in the tenth and eleventh innings. Now was the time for the 12th. Boon flew out to center. Capt. Barnes stepped up to the plate and caught a nice one on the end of his bat and it went on its journey.
When the dust cleared up he was standing on second base, two errors followed and he scored. Nashville was unable to score and the game was over, and the victory won.
